

Greased Pig Chase Is Main Feature of Twirp Week

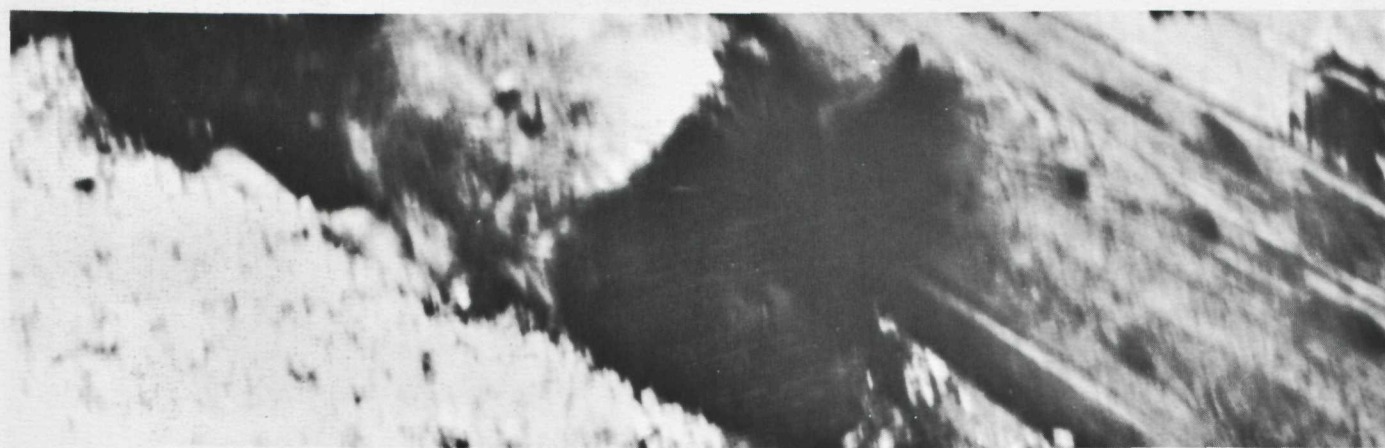

Twirp week is traditionally that period of time when girls take over many responsibilities normally assumed by boys. The boys were recipients of many free cokes, book loads lightened and opened doors.

The greased pig contest was held between varsity club members and the faculty. Amid numerous objections, the faculty was declared the winners.

The annual Sadie Hawkins Dance provided the culmination of the events. "The Exiles" provided fitting music for the occasion.

Tony Falsetta, Jon Hess and Tom Sutton struggle with "Porky."

"Porky" rests after a difficult day.

Mr. Emling and Mr. Oberlander discuss coming events at the conclusion of TwirpWeek Assembly.

Varsity Club members congratulate the faculty on their victory in the greased pig contest.
