

Senior class girls prepare tables for the spaghetti supper.

The pause that refreshes . . .

Senior Activities . . . Memorable Events

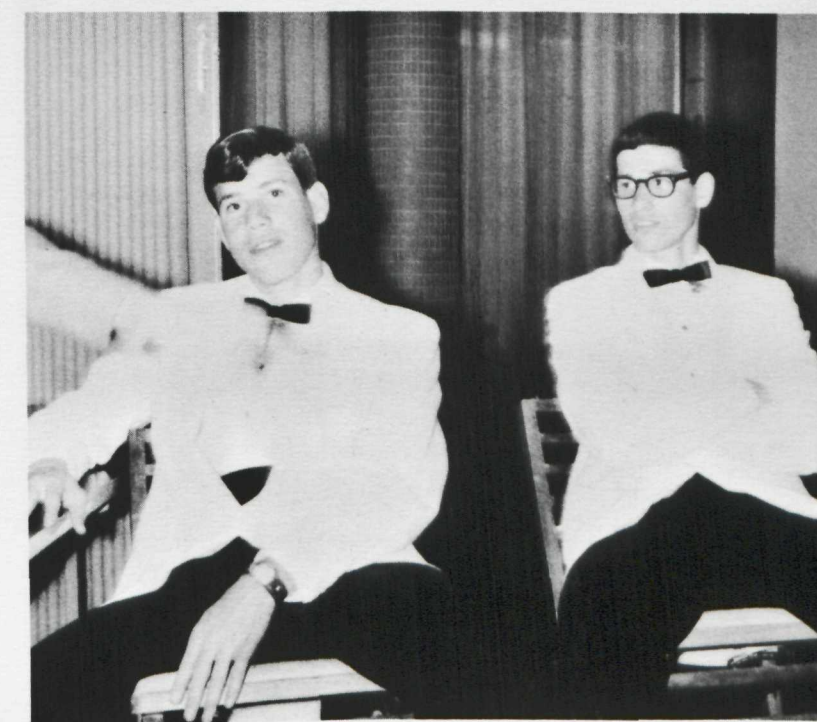

The senior trip proved to be both exciting and educational as New York became a reality.

One's senior year is an especially memorable one. It marks the end of a relatively protected existence and the beginning of one's truly independent course.

Thus, the events of this year are made more memorable by its unique position among many years.

A dance isn't made up entirely of dancing.

"Wish someone would ask us to dance."