The time has come, The time has come
 It's here
 Lie down in the grass
 let the wind whisper wisdom in our ears
 the wind often has many wise things to say
 And it's to our advantage to listen although we don't have to.
 It's good to lie in the grass and think—
 letting wind rustle your clothes and blow through your hair But, it's most important to have that place
 Where one can retreat
 and be himself
 or do his thing
 come
 It's here.
