

Queen Judy is Presented to Her Subjects

The great school spirit of M.P.H.S. was at a peak, especially during the pep assembly Friday afternoon. Barely a space was left on any wall as each class had spent many hours painting signs. The cheerleaders demonstrated their tremendous skill and cheering ability as they coaxed the students to cheer their loudest. As usual, the class of '69 proved to have the biggest mouths with the class of '70 coming in second. The imagination displayed in the skits proved that many hours of work were put into script writing and rehearsal. The Junior skit captured first place with the Seniors taking second. The honored judges of this event were: Mrs. Geneva Wisneski, Mr. Rex Gisler, and Mr. Dean Kreiner.

Homecoming Court 1968: Barb Tresh, Joyce Gray, Queen Judy Kappler, Jan Chamberlain, Roxie Brasington, and Deb Wood.

The Class of '70 put together a first place skit.

Did you hear the joke about the farmer and his daughter? Well . . .
