

HOMECOMING 1952

"She shall give the day, and kiss him with a glorious victory," says Shakespeare. And a glorious victory it was. The beauty of our queen, Carol Bloomer, the arousing spirit of the fans, and the teamwork of our varsity blended to make the '52 Homecoming a spectacular occasion.

Sports...

These are the hands that tied the shoes, slipped on the uniforms, shot the basketball, passed the football, and shook the hands of our opponent after each athletic contest . . . That teamwork developed through sports in high school days will carry over into our later years . . . Whether in the middle of a contest or watching from the sidelines, these will be your best fans . . . your good sports . . .
